CHAPTER 233.

AN ACT authorizing the secretary of any agricultural society to collect any entrance fees due the society of which he is secretary.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Relating to entrance fees for horse races.

SECTION 1. Any person entering any horse for any race, given under the auspices of any agricultural society of this state, shall be liable to such society for the entrance fee, which entrance fee shall be due and payable at the time the race shall be called for which such horse is entered; and upon failure to pay such entrance fee when due, such society may maintain an action therefor against the person so entering such horse. No horse entered in any race shall be exempt from execution or attachment issued in an action brought for the recovery of the whole or any part of the entrance fee herein provided.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 14, 1897.
